St Richard's Church Family Prayers

Sun 8 Nov. Pray that as we look back and remember those who gave their lives in sacrifice for their country, we will look up to the one who gave his life as a ransom for many.

Mon 9 Nov. Pray for the leaders of friendship hour as they meet today. Ask that the time together will be relaxed and informative, providing company and comfort for all who are lonely.

Tue 10 Nov. Pray for the General Synod meetings taking place next week. Give thanks for the newly elected representatives and ask that they would have a positive influence on the direction of the Church of England.

Wed 11 Nov. Give thanks for those who meet to pray today. Ask that we might be a church that is shaped by prayer, seeking the Lord's presence, direction and provision.

Thurs 12 Nov. Pray for our UK government to make wise decisions on behalf of the nation. Ask that any Christian MPs will be given courage to speak up on issues that affect the spread of the gospel.

Fri 13 Nov. Pray for the parents in our church with new babies as they juggle caring for children in different stages. Ask that they will depend on Jesus for rest and strength in this tiring stage of life.

Sat 14 Nov. Following OMF UK's recent office move from Kent to Manchester, please pray for new staff as they settle in to their roles, for the remaining roles to be filled, and for effective outreach amongst East Asians here in the UK.
